STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice shall require that Community Supervision Agencies utilize and adhere to all instructions set forth in the Division of Juvenile Services Financial Rules and Guidelines for Grantees. The Community Supervision Agency Director and/or designee shall be knowledgeable of all applicable guidelines and requirements for Graduated Sanctions and Prevention Block Grants funded through the Kansas Department of Corrections-Juvenile Services (KDOC-JS).

DISCUSSION: A complete and detailed budget for the Community Supervision Agency shall be written and approved by the Juvenile Corrections Advisory Board (JCAB) and administrative county Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) and approved by KDOC-JS.

The KDOC-JS Financial Rules and Guidelines for Grantees permit the BOCC and JCAB to approve the budgeting of block grant funds to provide for the needs of the juvenile as allowed by the KDOC-JS Financial Rules and Guidelines for Graduated Sanctions and Prevention Block Grants. Any need addressed with grant funds must be documented in the specific youth's supervision plan.
